

TopPerformer Dual 14-15.6

Combination of shoulder bag and backpack

Thanks to the flexibility of TopPerformer Dual you will always carry a bag that supports your needs. You can easily switch between using it as a shoulder bag and backpack and be sure that both your notebook and tablet PC is safely protected in the bag. There is a lockable notebook compartment that is cushioned with high density foam and it also has a tie-down strap to keep the notebook in place. In the spacious main compartment that can be expanded, there is a padded pocket for tablet PCs up to 10" and also a slip pocket for documents. When you want to carry TopPerformer Dual as a shoulder bag you use the retractable comfortable carrying handle and removable padded shoulder strap. And when you wish to have a backpack you instead use the retractable padded shoulder straps that are adjustable in length.

In the front compartment there is room for accessories such as pens, mobile phone, business cards and passport in designated pockets and there is also a larger mesh pocket. TopPerformer Dual furthermore has a trolley fastening strap for your convenience when travelling.
